

MOLLY DANIELS

Molly Daniels is a rapidly upcoming Australian actress with an extensive and diverse list of credits.

Molly starred as lead character ELLIE in the television adaptation of the popular book series Tomorrow When The War Began for ABC, as well as in two seasons of the hit ABC3 show You're Skitting Me. Her other television roles also include Get Krack!n, Upper Middle Bogan, Party Tricks, The Librarians and Stories From The Golf.

Molly's multi-faceted talent and skill extend into writing and directing. She wrote for the sketch show, You're Skitting Me and has written lyrics for songs in ABC's hit comedy Upper Middle Bogan. In 2015 she created, wrote, directed, produced, and featured in her eight-part web series Young Love.

As well as being drama coach on the extremely successful ABC3 show Little Lunch, Molly wrote and directed the behind-the-scenes featurette.

In 2015 Molly also studied at the iO Theatre in Chicago, USA.

Molly recently appeared in series 5 of The Doctor Blake Mysteries and starred as lead character ASHER in Ronny Chieng: International Student, both for ABC. Molly currently stars as lead character SAM in Gristmill's Back In Very Small Business. Later this year, she will join the series 9 cast of Shaun Micallef's Mad As Hell.

Molly can be heard presenting Short & Curly - a fast-paced fun-filled ethics podcast for kids and their parents - with Carl Smith and Dr Matt Beard, available for download via the ABC Radio app or iTunes.
