SUSIE YOUSSEF

Susie Youssef is a comedian, actor, writer and improviser.

She is a regular cast member on Whose Line Is It Anyway? Australia which premiered on Foxtel's The Comedy Channel in 2016 and screened on Network TEN in 2017. Susie was part of the ensemble cast on ABC TV's How Not To Behave and has guest starred in The Chaser's Media Circus, The Checkout, Channel 9's Here Come The Habibs, ABC comedy series Rosehaven and the second season of No Activity, which screens on Stan.

Susie has written, performed and produced comedy for stage, radio and television in Australia and around the world. In 2014, she played the lead role in the Hayloft Project's award-winning play The Boat People.

She is a regular performer at the Sydney Comedy Store and Giant Dwarf Theatre and has performed at Splendour in the Grass, Secret Garden Festival and Homebake. Susie has performed internationally as a guest at Improvaganza in Edmonton, Dad's Garage in Atlanta and The Del Close Marathon in New York. Susie studied at the iO Theatre in Chicago and ate all the burgers.

Following a sold-out run at the Sydney Fringe Festival in 2014, Susie made her solo debut at the Melbourne and Sydney Comedy Festivals in her sketch comedy show Sketchual Chocolate. She returned to the comedy festival circuit in 2015 with Owl Eyes On You and in 2016, Susie made her Edinburgh Fringe and London debut in Check Youssef Before You Wreck Youssef.

In 2017, Susie continues to test the limit of her anxiety with a new show Behave Youssef.
