

WILLIAM EWING

Being the youngest of ten children from a farm in the south west of Victoria, William's childhood was one of action, attention and performance, whether it be chasing sheep or making films with his brothers.

William studied for three years full time at the National Theatre where he received 3 scholarships; the Basin Theatre group scholarship and the G&E Jones scholarship for 2 consecutive years.

After graduating from the National Theatre in 2011, William played the recurring role of Griffin O'Donohue on Neighbours, Kevin in The Chocolate Frog directed by Malcolm Robertson, and is quite well known to Queensland for his role as the 'Time Traveller' in the RACQ car insurance commercial. Other appearances on Australian television include Miss Fisher's Murder Mysteries, Newton's Law, Olivia Newton-John: Hopelessly Devoted To You, and Utopia (Series 4).

William's theatre credits include The Laramie Project, Orpheus, Kissing And Fucking Up, The McNeil Project, Holy Ship, Cruising Paradise, A Chekhov Triptych and Patient 12.

In 2014 William toured the country as Mick in the musical Rolling Thunder Vietnam. He reprised this role when the show returned for an exclusive national Australian tour in July-August 2016 to commemorate the 50th anniversary of the Battle of Long Tan. He will once again return as Mick for the 2020 national Australian tour of Rolling Thunder Vietnam.
