

LUKE MCGREGOR

Luke McGregor is a writer, actor, and one of Australia's favourite comedians.

Luke's comedy career began in Tasmania in 2007 when he entered the RAW Comedy competition after one of the contestants didn't show up. Flash forward to 2023 and he's hosting the Oxfam Gala for MICF/ABC and touring a brand new hour of stand up across Australia in 2025. Okay, wow*.

In-between times, he has brought his undeniable charm to (so) many and (such) varied projects as Luke Warm Sex, Utopia, It's A Date, The Project, Spicks and Specks, The Weekly with Charlie Pickering (using his economics degree in his 'Lukenomics' segment), Have You Been Paying Attention?, Thank God You're Here and Guy Montgomery's Guy-Mont Spelling Bee.

On stage, he has presented sold-out offerings My Soul Mate Is Out Of My League (Best Newcomer MICF 2013), I Worry That I Worry Too Much, and Almost Fixed It across Australia and in the UK.

Most recently, he was a contestant on the first series of the Logie-nominated Taskmaster Australia and appeared in The Amazing Race (Celebrity Edition) with his mum, Julie. Good boy.

Last but hardly least, Luke is the co-creator, co-writer, and co-star of the dearly beloved Rosehaven with bestie Celia Pacquola for ABC TV, for which Luke won Most Popular Actor at the 2019 TV Week Logie Awards.

"An impeccable sense of comic timing." ★★★★★ The Age
