

KATIE ROBERTSON

Katie graduated from Sydney Theatre School's Diploma of Arts (Acting) in 2008. She is best known as regular character Grace in all seasons of ABC/Sundance TV's critically acclaimed series Rosehaven, and as lead character Ainsley in all four seasons of the hit series Five Bedrooms. In 2023 she burst onto screens internationally playing Vanessa Latham in the award-winning crime-comedy Deadloch.

In 2016 Katie was handpicked by Rebecca Gibney to play Jemima Parkmore in Channel Seven's Wanted and appeared as Sandra Hull in the BBC/Foxtel series The Kettering Incident. Other credits include a guest lead role in True Story With Hamish & Andy and a scene-stealing craft instructor on Get Krack!n. Katie also starred in Seven's spin-off of the wildly popular Miss Fisher's Murder Mysteries crime drama series titled Ms Fisher's Modern Murder Mysteries.

In 2016 she won the Tasmanian Theatre Award for Best Performance for her role as Vanda in Loud Mouth Theatre Co's debut production of Venus in Fur and the same award again in 2018 for her performance in the Tasmanian Theatre Company's sell-out season of e-baby.

Most recently she has been Director's Assistant to Cherie Nowlan (Suits, Riverdale, Grey's Anatomy) on NETFLIX'S upcoming The Survivors and will next be seen on screen in April 2024 in ABC's highly anticipated comedy White Fever. Katie is an in demand, versatile character actor.
