

KATIE ROBERTSON

Katie graduated from Sydney Theatre School's Diploma of Arts (Acting) in 2008. She is best known as regular character Grace in all seasons of ABC/Sundance TV's critically acclaimed series Rosehaven, and as lead character Ainsley in the hit series Five Bedrooms.

In 2016 Katie was handpicked by Rebecca Gibney to play Jemima Parkmore in Channel Seven's Wanted and appeared as Sandra Hull in the BBC/Foxtel series The Kettering Incident. Recent credits included a guest lead role in True Story With Hamish & Andy and a scene-stealing craft instructor on Get Crack!. Katie also starred in Seven's spin-off of the wildly popular Miss Fisher's Murder Mysteries crime drama series titled Ms Fisher's Modern Murder Mysteries.

In 2016 she won the Tasmanian Theatre Award for Best Performance for her role as Vanda in Loud Mouth Theatre Co's debut production of Venus in Fur and the same award again in 2018 for her performance in the Tasmanian Theatre Company's sell-out season of e-baby. Taswegian Katie is a dedicated advocate for the performing arts scene in Tasmania, co-founding Loud Mouth Theatre Company and producing over 13 shows.

Katie is currently shooting the third series of Five Bedrooms. The second series of Five Bedrooms premiered on Paramount+ in August 2021, as well as the fifth & final series of Rosehaven which premiered on ABC and iView in August 2021.
