Bryce Mills is a presenter, comedian, content creator, performer and host of triple j's Breakfast show, Bryce & Concetta.

As one of Australia's most versatile broadcasters he's someone who's interviewed not only the comedy duo 'Tiny Meat Gang' but also former Prime Minister Malcolm Turnbull. Bryce is able to hold it down solo sharing his rich music knowledge whilst also being able to make the nation laugh during peak listening hours. In 2020 he was dubbed one of the most exciting young radio talents in the country by Radio Today, and was named in their annual 'Top New Talent To Watch' list.

In addition to radio Bryce hosts the podcast Depravity Land with Campbell Walker (aka Struthless), taking aim at the worst the internet has to offer and flexing his deep understanding of the online world and pop culture. He was able to put this knowledge to work as a panellist on Network Ten's Unpacked series, reacting to and roasting episodes of The Bachelor and The Bachelorette.

As an improv comedian he's participated in multiple sold out shows at the Sydney Comedy Festival and Sydney Fringe Festival, as well as being invited to perform for audiences at Secret Garden Festival. You can find him performing with some of Australia's best improvisers at Improv Theatre Sydney on the Giant Dwarf Theatre stage.

His unique brand of docu-reality comedy and satire has amassed over one million views online and has been screened at festivals such as Sydney Underground Film Festival.
