

WILL GIBB

At 25 years old, Will Gibb already has over a decade of performance experience. After starting out as an improviser at the age of 12, Will made his leap to stand up comedy aged 17, where he won the MICF 'Class Clowns' NSW State Final. Will went on to hone his stand up craft and has had three sold out national tours, which can be chalked down to his whopping online following of over 1.6m people.

Known for his clever takes on toxic masculinity and poking fun at everyday situations we found ourselves rolling our eyes at, Will's comedic style is satirical and at times absurd. Growing his online following, Will has worked with numerous brands and hosted Tik Tok Australia's biggest live stream when he interviewed the cast of Stranger Things. Will has recently made the leap to writing and directing, where he hopes to grow and succeed as he has with his other creative endeavours.
