

HANNAH-RAE MEEGAN

Hannah-Rae Meegan is a queer writer, producer and actor dedicated to telling authentic stories that amplify LGBTQIA+ voices. In 2021, she founded Shop 15 with creative partner Monique Terry. Together, they have created and starred in series including The Formal and TOUCH, which have reached more than 32 million views and built a loyal audience of over 150,000.

The Formal began with support from TikTok and later Screen Australia, achieving one million views in its first day. TOUCH continued this momentum with more than six million views across TikTok and YouTube, backed by Screen Australia and Screen NSW. Alongside their original work, Hannah-Rae and Monique produced The Crop Tops for their YouTube channel Mon and Han, and have created campaigns for brands such as The Body Shop, Vaseline and Pantene. In 2024, Shop 15 received Screen Australia Enterprise Funding to support the development of TV and feature projects. Hannah-Rae's commitment to inclusive and engaging storytelling continues to guide her work on screen and behind the scenes.
