

MONIQUE TERRY

Monique Terry is a writer, director, actor, and producer who co-founded the production company Shop 15 with her creative partner, Hannah-Rae Meegan, in 2021. In 2024, they were recipients of the Screen Australia Enterprise Business Grant.

Monique is best known for co-creating The Formal, a TikTok and Screen Australia funded LGBTQIA+ romantic comedy series that gained over 12 million views and more than 100,000 followers worldwide. After making four seasons of The Formal, Monique went on to write, direct and star in Screen Australia and Screen NSW funded web series, Touch. She also executive produced and starred in Screen Australia funded series The Crop Tops, and wrote and directed The Body Shop's Self Care, bringing their total view count to over 36 million globally.

In addition to her narrative work, Monique has directed branded content for major campaigns including Tinder x Love Island, Vaseline and Pantene. She is currently developing a slate of original projects under the Shop 15 banner.
