

JAXON FAIRBAIRN

Jaxon has been appearing in home videos since he was a teenager, so even though he's only 24 he is already an online veteran with a devout following. He is best known for Fairbairn Films, an Australian comedy group with over 4.2 million followers and hundreds of millions of views globally, primarily featuring Jaxon and his older brother Lachlan. Growing up on a farm in South Australia, Jaxon and Lachlan are known for their online sketches and unique brand of deadpan Australian humour. Jaxon is now based in Sydney.

In 2020 the Fairbairn's received a nomination for the AACTA Award for Best in Online Entertainment, and in 2023 they were selected for Skip Ahead, a Screen Australia and YouTube initiative, which resulted in a 6 part web series called Fairbairn In The City which Jaxon acted in.

You may be familiar with their hugely popular Spotify Original podcast, Fair Enough, or a current fan of their aptly named, The Fairbairn Podcast on the Diamantina Network.

On the stage Jaxon has toured around Australia to sold out audiences, and in 2026 he and Lachlan will be doing what they do best with their brand new hour, Fair Dinkum, of live sketches.
